Tuesday, February 1. 1704

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 12.

Rome, December 18.

THE 13th instant Cardinal Janson, accompanied by a great number of Prelates and Roman Knights well affected to the Crowns of France and Spain, went in great Pomp to the Church of St. John Lateran, and assisted at a solemn Mass, in Memory of the Reunion of King Henry IV. of France to the Catholick Church. The Duke d'Uzeda Ambassador of Spain, and his Dutcheſs were there. In the Evening the Cardinal gave a noble Entertainment to the Duke d'Uzeda and the principal Persons that had been with him at Church. The 17th the Pope was present at a Consistory, and after the Dispatch of some Affairs, when it was wholly unexpected from him, he declar'd that he had taken a Resolution to advance to the Dignity of a Cardinal Signior Francesco Pignatelli, Archbishop of Naples, formerly a regular Clerk of the Order of the Theatins; and added, that seeing his Predecessor Innocent XII. with unalterable Stedfastness, had shewn no manner of regard to worldly things, nor conferr'd any particular Marks of Honour on his own Relations all his Life, it was but just that his Kinsman, a Person no less valuable for the Virtues becoming a Prelate, than for his nearness of Blood to that holy Pope, should be the first Object of his Favour. His Holiness has nominated Don Annibal Albani, his Nephew, to carry the Cap to the new Cardinal, and the Ceremony of presenting it to him is to be perform'd in the Church of our Lady of Loretto. Cardinal Janson has thank'd the Pope for this Promotion, and the same day treated several Neapolitan Lords with great Magnificence, among them the Prince of Belvedere, Brother to Cardinal Pignatelli, and the Son of the Duke d'Escalona Viceroy of Naples who is come hither from the Army in Italy.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 19.

Rome, Dec. 25. Don Annibal, the Pope's Nephew, is gone from hence for Loretto to carry the Cap to Cardinal Pignatelli, with a very honourable Letter written by his Holiness himself; it was thought at first that he would have had an extraordinary Commission to execute this Function of presenting the Cap, but the Pope has order'd him to use no other Ceremony than to present it in a Bason in the usual Manner, and the Cardinal is to put it upon his Head himself. He has likewise commanded him not to accept any Present. This Promotion, so honourable to the Memory of the late Pope, as well as to the 2 Crowns and the Neapolitan Nation, was receiv'd with all possible Demonstrations of Joy. All Persons of Quality, Subjects, or well affected to the 2 Crowns, made Illuminations, after the Example of the Cardinals and publick Ministers. The Emperor's Ambassador, not liking this Promotion, would have made no Illuminations, but being told that on such Occasions all Ambassadors, whatever Party they are of, use to give publick Demonstrations of Joy, he order'd Wax Torches to be put up at his Palace, like the rest.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Jan. 25.

Naples, Dec. 25. All the Nobility have visited the Duke of Terra Nova and Monteleon, a Grandee of Spain of the first Rank, to congratulate him on the Promotion of Cardinal Pignatelli his Brother our Archbishop; on which Occasion the Duke made a great Feast, and his Palace was illuminated 3 Nights successively. The Fathers Theatins have sung Te Deum in 3 of their Churches in this City, and illuminated their Convents 3 Nights together, because the Cardinal is of their Order. The 19th being the King's Birth-day, the Nobility in rich Habits waited on the Viceroy to compliment him on the Occasion; who caus'd Te Deum to be solemnly sung, and the Cannon of our Castles to be thrice discharg'd, at Night there was a great Appearance at Court, and an Opera was represented.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 22.

Rome, Dec. 29. Cardinal Ottoboni is made Protector of the Crowns of France and Spain, under the Cardinal de Medicis; which at first made the latter very uneasie, but being inform'd that those Potentates had occasion for a Protector who constantly resides here, to be always at hand to take care of the Affairs of the 2 Crowns, he is satisfied. The Duke d'Uzeda Ambassador of Spain, in an Audience he had very lately of the Pope, notified to him, that the Dutchy of Modena was reunited to the State of Milan, and that his Master had a Design to fortifie several Places of that Dutchy, but desir'd his Holiness not to take Umbrage at it, assuring him his Master had no other Design than to secure his Dominions against the Attempts of his Enemies: But the Pope did not relish this Compliment, and 'tis said has dispatch'd Orders to his Nuncio at the Court of France, to solicit that the Duke of Modena may be reestablish'd in his Sovereignty and Revenues.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 31.

Rome, Jan. 5. The Pope being inform'd on the 3d instant that Cardinal Spinola lay very Sick, sent him his Benediction; and yesterday that Cardinal died in the 89th year of his Age: By his Death there is a 12th Place in the Sacred College vacant. The Duke de Salviati, who was the last of his Race in the Male Line, died on the 3d after he had receiv'd the Pope's Blessing; he has left 25000 Crowns a Year to an only Daughter. The Cardinals Charles Barbarino, Morigia, and Noris, are dangerously Sick.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan. 29.

Liege, Jan. 25. The Baron de Trogne, Governour of Huy, has caus'd 6 French-men, disguis'd in the Habit of Peasants, to be taken up and imprison'd, for having laid a Plot between them to assassinate him; and they will speedily be brought to a Tryal. 12 French Soldiers, of one of the Outguards of Namur, took an opportunity t'other day to shoot their Officer, and to desert to Huy; who being brought before the Baron de Trogne, and having acquainted him in what manner they got away, he told them he would never encourage any Soldiers to murder their Officers, and immediately sent them back to Namur.

Plymouth, Jan. 28. On the 26th instant came in Her Majesty's Ship the Dolphin from Falmouth; the same day sail'd hence Her Majesty's Ship the Nonesuch

None such for Spithead; yesterday sail'd hence to the Eastward Her Majesty's Ships the Suffolk, Advice, and Fubbs Yacht. This day came in the Zelandier Privateer of Flushing of 22 Guns, who yesterday off of Scilly came up with a French Privateer of 32 Guns, with whom they had a very close Engagement for 3 hours till the French Privateer sheer'd off; in which dispute the Dutch-man had 3 Men kill'd and 7 wounded. This day came in Her Majesty's Ship the Hound from Scilly.
